Alo24
Navoi, alo24.uz

React developer (team lead)

In this company, I learned a number of concepts about business, automation, what clients like, and so on. At the same time, I worked as the main front end of the team. I also learned to work with backend programmers and contributed to the successful creation of the "Alo24" program. This was my first step towards Node Js.

Frontend-разработчик

This educational center opened many opportunities for me. During my career, I taught many students, and at the same time I understood what I need to relearn. I can say that this was my first step into the React framework.
